Laser Spine Institute Philadelphia Participates In Susan G. Komen Race For The Cure
Leader In Endoscopic Spine Surgery Participates In Breast Cancer Awareness Event

PHILADELPHIA – Bill Horne, CEO of Laser Spine Institute (<http://www.laserspinesinstitute.com>), the leader in endoscopic spine surgery, has announced that the Philadelphia facility will participate in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure taking place on Sunday, May 8. The event will begin at the Eakins Oval at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and attracts supporters from Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey in a mission to raise funds and awareness to help combat breast cancer. Funds raised for the Komen walk directly contribute to educating the public, researching a cure and empowering women across the country.

QUOTES:

“We are proud to announce that team members from Laser Spine Institute Philadelphia will be taking part in the Komen Race for the Cure,” said Horne. “We strive to improve the quality of life for patients across the country and are pleased to be able to support such a worthy organization whose mission is the same. The Susan G. Komen for the Cure foundation has made great strides in the education, prevention and treatment of breast cancer, and we are glad that we can contribute to its cause.”
