Laser Spine Institute Administrator To Serve On Board of Directors For The First Tee Of Tampa BayClint Borm Named To Board For Program Branch Of Tampa Metropolitan Area YMCA

TAMPA, FLA. – Bill Horne, CEO of Laser Spine Institute (<http://www.laserspinesinstitute.com>), the leader in endoscopic spine surgery, has announced that Clint Borm, director of physician relations and consultation services, has been named to the board of directors for The First Tee of Tampa Bay, a program branch of the Tampa Metropolitan Area YMCA. The program strives to impact the lives of young people by providing various educational programs that help strengthen character, promote healthy life decisions, and develop strong core values through the game of golf. As a new member of the board, Borm, who joined Laser Spine Institute in 2007, will be actively involved in positively affecting the lives of children in the Tampa Bay area through various hands-on, educational golf experiences.

QUOTES:

"We are extremely proud of Clint's involvement with the First Tee of Tampa Bay program," said Horne. "Based on his devotion to patients, his love for the game of golf, and his inspiring character, we are confident that he will be a great asset to the board of directors for the program."
